SIGNS ALONG THE WAY

BEST

I've never professed to being normal. I suppose it's just not how I was wired...

When I was a kid, I never liked the crust on bread, but my mother told me I should eat it. So, I decided to just eat the crust first. I saved the best stuff for last.

It continued for me. If I eat a sandwich or hamburger, I eat all around the outside first, then I eat the inside, even to this day. I save the best stuff for last.

When I eat any meal, it's easy to tell what I like best; I save the best stuff for last.

If I record movies on DVR, I watch the least-interesting things first. I save the best stuff for last

It dawned on me the other day; perhaps I'm not as crazy as it seems. When my time on this planet is done...I've saved the best stuff for last.
