Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 "For everything there is a season and a time for every purpose under heaven." The Psalmist David reminds us that for everything there is a season.

My season of being the Senior Pastor of First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) has come to a close.

Doris and I have enjoyed our nine years of "Reaching Out and Up to God" in our community of faith.

We thank you for the awesome retirement luncheon. Doris's roses, my Honored Minister pin, the plaque on behalf of the church, the meal, the monetary love offering for us, and especially the soil from under the sanctuary were very special. Not many know that we have a basement under the sanctuary.

Thanks to Jan Duffy and Jack Maxwell for coordinating all the events of the retirement luncheon. The meal was fantastic. Thanks to the many friends who came to be a part of this special day. The plaque will be hung in a prominent place in our home to remind us of our ministry together. A special thanks to Mary Grobe for the wonderful cakes.

Doris and I hope to drown a few worms soon in a trout stream. We ask for your prayers as we begin this new journey for our lives. We will keep the church also in our prayers.

This is not a goodbye but shalom.
 Rev. Frank J. Chlastak and Doris Chlastak
